

Address: 319 Polk St

The original features include three gothic windows, lots of stained glass, the gingerbread on the front porch and the fishscale sawnwork on the gables.

The light at the end of the long central hall with its graceful arch is a bright sun room. See Agent Only remarks or call for floor plan and flyer.

A narrow grassy driveway leads back to the recently enlarged daylight basement with custom doors big enough to build and/or store a small boat.

The sun room overlooks a scenic backyard and is adjacent to the remodeled kitchen.

The larger of the 2 bathrooms includes a walk-in closet. The other bath recently was completely redone with tile floor and quality fixtures.

Exquisite original mantels in the Living & Dining rooms face each other through handsome double doors.

Versatile floor plan Each of the 3 BR could be used as a den, parlor, study or office. All are larger than 15 x15 but two lack closets, characteristic of the 1890 s.

The bright modern kitchen area had originally been detached from the main house.

In lieu of adding closets when restored, the original doors between rooms were left intact so that the rooms can flexibly used.

Located on one of the most scenic streets in Oakwood the home is close to shops, restaurants and a new hardware store.
