

Walk everywhere

Museums, theater, galleries, a university, schools, parks, restaurants, shops and much more are walking distance from the tree lined residential streets of Oakwood. The eclectic mix of shops includes bike, books, hardware, wine, music, pharmacy, chocolates.

Oakwood is an urban village

Call for the names of nearby neighbors who can describe Oakwood activities including the annual Candlelight Tour in December, Easter egg hunt, 4th of July parade & picnic, spring jazz brunch, fall pig-picking, monthly pot-luck suppers, garden club, baby-sitting resources, schools, kids and more. Visit the neighborhood web site at HistoricOakwood.org. Go to OakwoodProject.org and listen to oral histories that include the successful efforts in the 1970s to defeat a north-south expressway that would have destroyed Oakwood. The map, "below right", shows the proposed path of the defeated highway.

Oakwood is a local & national historic District

The value of property in Oakwood is increased by the fact that it is a historic district. Overlapping local and national Oakwood historic districts are shown in the map "below left". In the local district, City approval is required for changes to exterior structures and landscaping. Go to RHDC.org for detailed maps and Historic District guidelines and procedures.
